Why we collect and use information:

We use the pupil data:

- To support pupil learning
 - To keep informed to keep children safe
 - To provide appropriate pastoral care
 - To comply with the law regarding data sharing
 - To assess the quality of our services
 - To comply with the law regarding data sharing
 - To ensure financial stability
- We use the parents' data:

The lawful basis on which we use this information:

The lawful bases for processing personal data are set out in Article 6 of the General Data Protection Regulation. The school processed such data because we have:

(6a) Consent: parents have given clear consent for us to process their (and their child's) personal data for the purposes indicated above.

(6d) A duty to safeguard pupils: the processing is necessary in order to protect the vital interests of the data subject (children); (e.g. if we are required to share medical history information with emergency services in the event of an accident or to other agencies when a child may be in danger).

(6e) to perform a task in the public interest or for official functions and the task or function has a clear basis in law.

Collecting Pupil Information:

The majority of information you provide to us is personal. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing pupil data:

We will hold pupil data in line with the Trust Retention Policy after your child leaves our Preschool. All confidential information is kept secure either on encrypted, password protected devices or paper copies kept on the school site. Once the deadline for retaining information has passed, data kept electronically is deleted and paper copies are destroyed.

Who we share pupil information with:

We routinely share aspects of pupil information with:

- Schools that the pupil attends after leaving us e.g. Fairfield Community Primary School
- Our local authority
- Our Multi-Academy Trust
- The Department for Education (DfE)
- Children's Social Care (when safeguarding pupils' welfare)
- External professionals who visit school (such as Educational Psychologists)
- Our appointed school photographer
- Suppliers and service providers with whom we have a contract
- Voluntary organisations linked to the school e.g. Friends of Fairfield

We do not share information about our Pre-school pupils with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Data collection requirements

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed upon us by the DfE (for example; via the school 'census') go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collectionand-censuses-for-schools>)

Requesting access to your personal data – Subject Access Request

Under data protection legislation, parents and pupils have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, or be given access to your child's educational record, contact the school office on 01509 503214 or visit the website <https://www.fairfieldcpschool.co.uk/>

You also have the right to:

- Object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- Prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- Object to decisions being made by automated means
- In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Data Protection Regulations.

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we request that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns>
